

Invites you to

Being Mortal: Film Screening and Discussion

Thursday, April 5, 2018

6-8 pm

Kingsbrook Jewish Medical Center (Main Campus)

Lillian Minkin Ballroom

585 Schenectady Ave

(Enter on Winthrop Street between Schenectady and 49th Street)

Brooklyn, NY

Join us for a free screening and discussion of "Being Mortal", a PBS Frontline documentary based on Atul Gawande's best-selling book. The film will be followed by a panel discussion with experts in end of life care about what matters most to patients and families facing difficult treatment decisions and how to have these conversations ahead of a medical crisis. Topics will include hospice, palliative care and advance directives.

The panel will include:

Laurie Leonard, LMSW - Executive Director, End of Life Choices New York (moderator)

Lauren Shaiova, MD - Chief of Palliative Medicine, Brookdale University Hospital

Brooke Barber, LMSW - Assistant Director of Palliative Medicine, Brookdale Hospital

Michael D. Lissner, Esq - Elder care attorney, Lissner & Lissner LLP

There will be an opportunity for questions from the audience. Light refreshments will be served.

Registration is not required for this program. For more information please email events@endoflifechoicesny.org.